

ROX 1954

DEPENDABILITY

Dependability is a trait which a person cannot be granted by gift nor decree. It can be achieved only through the efforts of the individual by days, months, and even years, of attention to promptness; keeping his word; loyalty to his friends; and fulfillment of obligation to his church, community, and country. Yet, dependability is one of those rare and rich jewels of character which contributes greatly, enabling the individual so possessed to stand out above the average in his community.

You who are being graduated this year have demonstrated dependability by your achievement in completing school—may you, in the pathway of life that stretches before you, blaze a trail that will in the years to come symbolize you as one of those distinct individuals of whom it is said—"He is dependable"—because without it, success cannot be yours.

Those industries whose business has continued to furnish the life-blood of commerce and prosperity to your community over the years have done so—not by a miracle, but by constructive hard work and establishing a character—the same characteristic which can mean so much to you—dependability.

THE ROX

Presented By The Class Of 1954

Roxana High School
Roxana, Illinois

Foreword

Dear Annie.

Best wishes to the grandest boy in the Daphnare class. I'll never forget the sweet times we've had in library. I think I would have fled from boredom, if it hadn't been for you. Don't forget Annie you have to take me out some time. You're a real reminder. Be good during the summer and I hope I see you sometime between now & next fall. Oh, I got to say is that, that "junior blond" is mighty lucky. "Shirley" L.

P.S. How about a game of tennis?

In presenting to you The Rox, the class of 1954 has tried to preserve for you those aspects of high school life whose memory in after years will be most dear to you; to compile a book that in later years will bring you face to face, in picture and in word, with those friends you learned to love in Roxana High School. If The Rox accomplishes this, its mission will have been fulfilled.

Annie,

Best of luck to Roxana's cutest sophomore boy. — my little library buddy. I've had a lot of fun "goofing-off" in library, haven't we? Even when you took the compass and made that real long scratch on my arm. Have a dandy summer but behave yourself!

ROXANA COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL

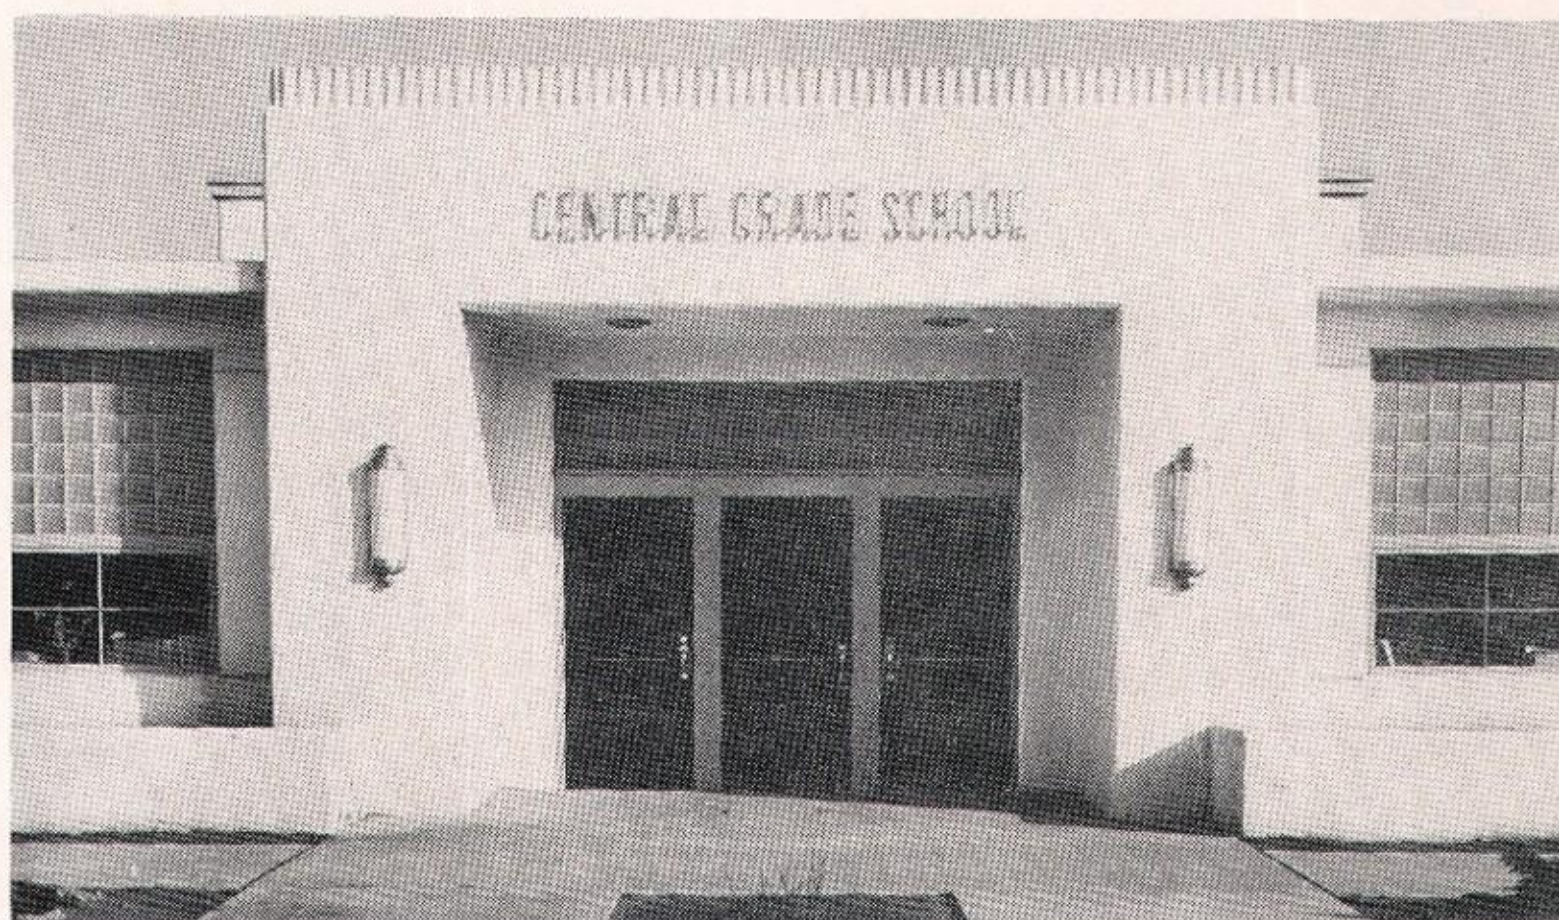

ESTABLISHED

JUNIOR AND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOLS

CENTRAL GRADE SCHOOL

ROSEWOOD AND SOUTH ROXANA GRADE SCHOOLS

Dedication

To the civic minded residents of the Roxana Community and School District No. 1, who made possible this great building program, this year-book is dedicated. That these citizens have felt the responsibility of their great obligations to the future citizens is shown by the concrete evidence of these many buildings.

The school population in the Roxana area has grown from 500 in 1941 to 1902 in 1953. No one can foretell what added responsibilities will be heaped upon this loyal citizenry in the future, for a growing population in a highly industrial community knows no limits.

Whatever the load may be, the citizens of Community Unit District No. 1 can be depended upon to meet its obligations to the school children of this area.

To you, the citizens of the Roxana area, we are grateful.

Dear Ronnie,
Although I can't say anything to you like you said to me I can tell you to be careful, so you won't have to take any trips to Miss.
Also, don't give Harmon too much trouble by flitting with Bonnie. I would be even so scared of Grubbs. If that is possible, I'll move from his year. But, maybe we has been pestering him a hard time. But, maybe we could have some give him a hard time. But, maybe we will seriously. (Of that is possible) I'll try to do.
I can see that with everything you will go for.

lot's of luck to you and hope you make it through school but on thing KEEP away from the girl
because they will break you.

DEPENDABILITY

Dependability is a trait which a person cannot be granted by gift nor decree. It can be achieved only through the efforts of the individual by days, months, and even years, of attention to promptness; keeping his word; loyalty to his friends; and fulfillment of obligation to his church, community, and country. Yet, dependability is one of those rare and rich jewels of character which contributes greatly, enabling the individual so possessed to stand out above the average in his community.

You who are being graduated this year have demonstrated dependability by your achievement in completing school—may you, in the pathway of life that stretches before you, blaze a trail that will in the years to come symbolize you as one of those distinct individuals of whom it is said—"He is dependable"—because without it, success cannot be yours.

Those industries whose business has continued to furnish the life-blood of commerce and prosperity to your community over the years have done so—not by a miracle, but by constructive hard work and establishing a character—the same characteristic which can mean so much to you—dependability.
